

A blank Dungeons & Dragons character sheet template. It features a large rectangular area at the top for a character portrait. Below the portrait is a horizontal bar for the character's name. Underneath the name bar is a section for character statistics, including a scroll for the character's class and alignment, a shield icon for Armor Class (AC), and a circle icon for Hit Points. Below these are six small rectangular boxes for the character's skills, each labeled with a letter (S, D, C, I, W, C). At the bottom of the sheet are two more boxes: one for Initiative and one for Hit Points / Conditions.
